

Better Bilt Products, Inc.

Maintenance – Trainee

Better Bilt Products is a growing company in the world of wire forming production looking for an entry level Job Shop Maintenance person to serve in our Maintenance Department. This position is suitable for someone who has a high level of mechanical aptitude and a strong willingness to learn on the job. This candidate must be motivated to learn a skilled trade.

Responsibilities include:

Assist maintenance department in diverse job shop environment including daily and regularly scheduled cleaning and maintenance tasks on machinery and equipment.

Perform building/machine maintenance tasks.

Desire to learn and understand mechanical drawings

Use a variety of hand tools to complete maintenance and repair tasks.

Performs other duties as assigned.

Required Skills/ Abilities

- Willingness to learn
- Ability to follow verbal/written instructions and retain what is learned
- Mechanical aptitude and ability to repair and fix items with your hands
- Read and interpret drawings, use simple math to perform basic calculations and use basic hand tools.
- Work independently as well as with others
- Safety orientated
- Lift/push/pull objects that are 50 lbs.
- Communicate in English
- Maintain written documentation of work performed

Experience needed

- No experience needed
- Familiar with a manufacturing job shop environment a plus
- Requires a high level of activity including standing, walking, bending, kneeling, crouching, climbing and working in various temperature conditions.

This position reports to a supervisor.

Hourly: $ 15 / hr

Hours: 5:00 am – 3:30 pm, Monday through Thursday

Benefits: Paid vacation & holidays, retirement savings, group health, life insurance, long & short term insurance